

please leave satellite radio alone. although it does not offer local traffic and weather for my city, it might in the future. satellite delivered information and entertainment should not be curtailed because regular radio wants us to have to sit through more commercials.